

Movie Review Rubrics

Presentation
Lacks any presentation at all. Simply a typed text.	0
Basic presentation, with the movie basic information (title, director, actor) being highlighted.	1
Good presentation, with all info presented below plus date of release, original title, list of actors (more than 2).	2-3
Cover sheet with movie poster, year of release, cast, title in English, title in the original language, director, screenwriter and country of origin.	4-5

Movie Description
The student did not describe the movie at all, just attaining to the basic information on the presentation.	0
The student used basic information and did not really developed what the movie is about.	1-3
The student used the press release as a description or reveal too much of the the story, which will affect the experience of others.	4
The student clearly wrote by himself the movie description, not based on his personal options but based on what he saw on screen without revealing any relevant plot twist or any relevant information what would spoil the movie experience.	5

Movie Review
The student did not review the movie, attaining itself just on the movie description	0
The student used his/her personal opinion, not developing it either using personal reasons, nor cinematic reasons. Eg: "This movie sucks" .	1
The student used his/her personal opinion, justifying it with non cinematic reasons. Eg: "This movie sucks because that actor is really bad" .	2
The student used his/her academic opinion and developed it using cinematic reasons but did not compare with any other films from the genre or the same director.	3-4
The student used his/her academic opinion and developed it using cinematic reasons, comparing with other films of the same genre but not comparing with other films from the same director.	5-6
The student used his/her academic opinion and developed it using cinematic reasons, comparing with other films of the same genre and the same director.	7-8
The student used his/her personal opinion and developed it using cinematic reasons, not personal reasons and compared with other films in the same genre and also from the same director, citing also the critics opinion about this movie.	9-10

Conclusion
The student didn't write a conclusion for his review.	0
The student wrote a conclusion but it's not clear if the reader should watch or not the movie.	1-3
The student wrote a conclusion and it's clear if the reader should watch or not the movie.	4-5

Total: 25